Fairtrade Fortnight

Today was our final Fairtrade Tuck Shop. Well done to our Ethos Council for running the event and raising awareness about such an important issue.

Music Concert

We would like to say a huge thank you to Mrs Tice and Mrs Taylor for organising our music concert on Wednesday. It was a fabulous celebration of the children’s learning and a wonderful opportunity for them to perform. We also offer thanks to all our music teachers for their input.

Mrs Taylor is running a raffle to raise money to support music provision and teaching in school. There are some incredible prizes: two adult main courses at Don Alberto, a family ticket for Gandey’s Circus, a L’Wren hair voucher an EaziLash voucher, a Funfest holiday club voucher for two children and an Ableworld hamper. Tickets are £1 and can be purchased from the school office or children can buy tickets from Mrs Taylor at break time. Prizes will be drawn on Friday 17th March.

Easter Egg Raffle

Our Rose Queen and her attendants will be hosting the annual Easter Egg Raffle on Friday 24th March. They would be grateful for any donations of eggs . Thank you!

Raffle tickets will go on sale on Monday 13th March. Children can purchase them each break time for 50p.

Mother’s Day Present Room

The PTA will be hosting the Mother’s Day Present Room on Friday 17th March. During the day, every class will have an opportunity to visit the hall and choose and wrap a gift for £2.

Basketball

On Monday, a number of KS2 pupils travelled to HCCS for a basketball tournament.

B team played some amazing basketball and had great sportsmanship.

A team came up against some tough competition and played some great basketball at times. Unfortunately, it wasn't to be, and we didn't place in the medals.

Thank you to Mrs Warren for coaching and supporting both teams.

Love God, love learning, love one another.
