Fundraising for the Australian Fires

The total now stands at £1860.94. Many, many thanks again.

World Book Day

For World Book Day this year Mrs Woods has organised for each class to visit a local library. The visits will take place on Tuesday 3rd March and PTA have kindly offered to cover the cost of transport. Further details will be sent out shortly!

Learning Exhibition

Thank you to everyone who has sent work in. It is lovely to see how the children have built on their learning at home.

Y6 Toy Sale

Thank you to everyone who came to the Y6 Toy Sale. They raised an amazing £246.20

PTA Disco

We look forward to seeing you at tonight's disco. Please remember children should not have bring their phones.

Thank you for your support.

Times Table Rock Stars

This week we held our first CDAT Times Table Rock Stars Battle. We came fourth overall so we definitely need to practise before the next one! Well done to our highest scorer, Toby (Y3), who came 28th overall! Well done to Y4 for being the highest scoring class in Brereton!

Year	Class	Score

22	Year 5 - Brereton CofE Primary School	252

Boccia

Our Y2 pupils had a great time at Hermitage taking part in the first KS1 Boccia tournament. They won all but one game and Mrs Warren was incredibly proud of how supportive they were of each other and the other children taking part. Well done!

Love God, love learning, love one another.

Friday 14th February 2020

Mrs Pulle and the Ethos council held a tea party on Tuesday this week for local residents and Grandparents. Thank you to parents and staff who helped to bake cakes and to the children who entertained and served our guests to make the event a great success.

Love God, love learning, love one another.
