World Book Day

The children thoroughly enjoyed their visits to the library. Thank you to the staff at Holmes Chapel and Sandbach library for hosting us, to the parents who helped. to Mrs Wood for organising and to the PTA for funding the transport.

All children have been given a book token. We hope they enjoy purchasing their new book!

Lent Collection

As part of Lent, Reverend Sandi has organised a collection for the homeless and she would be grateful of the following items:

Small packets of tissues, Comb /brush, Black bin liners, Toothbrushes, Toothpaste, Baby wipes, Tampons, Underpants, Knickers, Socks, Gloves, Hats, Polo Mints, Chewing Gum, Granola Bars, Hand wipes, Water bottle, Sunscreen, Plasters, Nail clippers, Chewable Multivitamins, Toilet roll, Black bin bags

Items can be dropped off at St Oswald's church or at school.

Holmes Chapel Fire Station Car Wash

Holmes Chapel Fire Station are hosting a charity car wash on Saturday, March 21, 2020. Please pop along and support the event.

PTA Meeting

At our last PTA meeting we discussed the Valentine's Day Disco and we planned the Mothers Day Present Room. The disco was a huge success so thank you to everyone who came. We are currently looking to purchase playground equipment, which will benefit all children. The School Council have been busy making a list of resources that children can enjoy at playtimes and lunchtimes.

Our next PTA meeting is on Tuesday 21st April at 6pm

Music Competition

Well to Isabel and Sopiellia who competed in the Cheshire East, Young Musician competition in KS1 instrumental Class. Isabel came 2nd and Sopiellia came 3rd, both playing their flutes. A super achievement!

Love God, love learning, love one another.
