Spring 10
Friday 20th March 2015

Dear Parents,

The school has been overrun by pirates this week with Reception enjoying a day of dressing up and fun activities on Thursday.

Our exciting news is that we have five adorable chicks in Year 2. They hatched overnight on Wednesday and were cheeping away when the class arrived on Thursday morning.

We say goodbye today to Miss Williams and Miss Allison who have spent time in Reception and Year 1 this term. They are returning to MMU to continue their studies.

Author Visit

As you know, we are having a visit from children's Author , Damien Harvey on Monday 30th March. Have a look at Damien's website www.damianharvey.co.uk before he visits as this has information about Damien and his books, a diary of what he is doing and lots of other things. He will bring a selection of books to purchase and he will sign it on the day as a memento. The books are generally priced at £5.

Netball

Congratulations to both A and B teams who played brilliantly in three tournaments over the past three weeks. The B team came first and the A team came third. A wonderful achievement!
