CITV "Share A Story" Competition 2016

Application terms and conditions

1. APPLICATION PROCESS

Competition opens on Thursday 3rd March 2016 as stated in the promotion. Competition closes for entry at 6.00 p.m. on Friday 29th April 2016. All entries received after 6.00 p.m. on Friday 29 April 2016 will not be counted.

2. ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the eligibility criteria in the General Competition, Vote and Poll Terms and Conditions, entrants must be aged between 5 and 12 years old at the time of the competition close date (Friday 29 April 2016) and must obtain prior parental permission before entering the competition. Please note teacher consent will not be adequate and parental consent must be obtained.

The entrant must be available to attend the ITV Studios, The London Television Centre, Upper Ground, London, SE1 9LT with a parent or guardian on 13th July 2016 and a Premiere Event in Manchester for one day in the week commencing 10th October 2016.

Proof of age and eligibility will be required.

3. METHOD OF ENTRY

Eligible entrants should go to the website at www.itv.com/shareastory and download a competition entry form as instructed. The form should be printed and completed by hand then returned by post to Freepost CITV, or a scanned version of the form emailed to shareastory@itv.com.

The entry form should contain the following:

- the age category that the entrant falls under;
- the contact details of the entrant's parent or guardian;
- the parental consent form must be completed;
- the 'My Story' section must be completed; and
- the storyboard boxes must be filled in.

Entries must not contain any sensitive information, offensive language or images, any branding or any mention of any person's surname. The entrant must not submit a plagiarised story.

Entries will be judged based on but not limited to the entrants' originality, creativity, how engaging the idea is and that the idea could work well as a one (1) minute animation. The winning entries will be adapted and turned into short animations of no more than one (1) minute in length.

There is no other method of entry other than that specified in these terms and conditions.

There is no charge for entry. There is no charge for downloading the entry form but internet service providers' fees may apply when accessing the internet.

Entries created by groups of individuals, including without limitation school groups or other organisations, will be invalid and will not be entered into the competition. Only one (1) entry per person is permitted. In the event that any entrant submits more than one (1) entry, only the first entry will be considered.

The Promoter, Prize Provider and producers bear no responsibility for any entry which is incorrectly submitted, lost or received after the closing date, or damaged in anyway.

All entries will then be grouped into categories according to the following ages:

- Category 1: 5-6 years old;
- Category 2: 7-8 years old;
- Category 3: 9-10 years old; and
- Category 4: 11-12 years old.

(each a "category" and together the "categories").

The Promoter recommends that entrants keep copies of their entries as entries will not be returned to the entrants.

4. SHORTLIST

All submissions will be assessed by a panel of judges consisting of animators and industry experts, including an independent judge (the “shortlist panel”). The shortlist panel will decide on a shortlist of up to 20 candidates in each category on or after Monday 23rd May 2016 (the “shortlisted candidates”). The shortlist panel’s selection of the shortlisted candidates will be at its sole discretion and will be final.

5. SHORTLISTED CANDIDATES JUDGING

The shortlisted candidates will then be judged by a panel of judges, including an independent judge (the “panel”). The panel will select three (3) finalists from each category on or after Thursday 2nd June 2016 (the “finalists”) and the finalists’ parents will be contacted on or after Monday 6th June 2016. The panel’s decision will be at its sole discretion and final.

In the event that the panel ties in its decision, CITV’s Creative Director will have the final decision.

6. FINALIST SELECTION

There will be three (3) finalists from each age category. A further stage of selection may take place as an online public vote but alternatively the Promoter and Prize Provider reserve the right to elect that the panel pick the winner with the independent judge having the final decision in the event of a tie.

7. PRIZE

The prize will be for the winners to write and voice their own one (1) minute film based on their entry to be shown on the CITV channel and CITV website.

Each winner will be required to attend a workshop at the ITV Studios, The London Television Centre, London SE1 9LT. The workshop is expected to last for one (1) day and will be held on Wednesday 13th July 2016 in London. The parent(s) and/or guardian(s) of winners will be sent child performance licence paperwork prior to the workshop and will be required to have this licence paperwork, including without limitation the supply of any requested/required medical information, completed no later than 21 days before the day of the workshop. Winners and/or their parents and/or guardians may also be required to sign and complete additional paperwork authorising the winners to participate including without limitation consent forms in respect of the winners, their parent(s) and/or guardian(s) being filmed. Winners may also be asked to contribute to the animation (through voice over or similar) at the sole discretion of the Promoter and/or Prize Provider. Winners will work with an author on developing their story and be shown their story in working progress; this will comprise of, but is not limited to, character designs. Winners will also have the opportunity to voice their story after receiving tuition from a voice over artist. Their story will be made into a one (1) minute short animation. The animation may at the sole discretion of the Promoter be broadcast on CITV and on the CITV website. The Promoter may also at their sole discretion film a ‘making of’ package featuring the winners including “behind the scenes” footage which may at the sole discretion of the Promoter also be broadcast on CITV and ITV and on the CITV website. The winner will be required to attend the Premiere Event of the finished animations in Manchester during the week commencing Monday 10th October 2016 with one parent or guardian. The prize includes:

- All travel expenses;
- All accommodation expenses (if the Promoter, in its sole discretion, deems it necessary); and
- Food expenses up to a value of £50 per day for a maximum of two days;

For the winners and one accompanying parent or guardian per winner. Travel and accommodation will be organised and paid for by the Prize Provider.

The Promoter and/or prize provider reserves the right to vary the dates of the workshop and the Premiere Event and to vary the length of time required at the workshop at their sole discretion.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Promoter reserves the right to publish any entrant’s entry, in any media in whole or in part.

By making an entry the entrant, their parent(s) and/or guardian(s) (“You”) grant the Promoter permission to use the entry in any way it wants. This means that the Promoter can use, edit, reproduce, record, modify, translate, distribute, play, perform, broadcast, make available and display the entry (or part thereof) and/or prepare derivative works of the entry by any medium or method whether now known or later developed, including without limitation on the website or any other website in its sole discretion anywhere in the world. The Promoter may also permit third parties to use the entry. You acknowledge that You will not receive any fee or royalty payment from the Promoter, producers or any third party for the consents and grants given by You in relation to your entry.

You confirm and agree that You are fully authorised and entitled to grant this permission. You agree to give us evidence of this authority and entitlement if requested by us. You agree to waive any moral rights that may exist in relation to the entry. This means that You waive the right to complain about the way in which the Promoter and/or producers may edit, alter or use the entry and that the Promoter and/or producers do not have to identify You. The entrant’s parent or legal guardian may be required to provide their signature to confirm the entrant’s agreement to the terms set out in these terms and conditions and to licence any additional rights which may be required by the Promoter and/or the producers.

The Promoter, Prize Provider and/or producers do not guarantee, represent, undertake or warrant that they will contact every entrant. Unless otherwise specified, the Prize does not include any costs or expenses incurred in entering the competition including but not limited to internet access fees, any phone calls made, travel costs and accommodation, incidental costs, charges, fees, expenses and taxes.
